

Bryan O'Halloran DPT, SCS, OCS, COMT.

Bryan is a Certified Orthopaedic Manual Therapist, Board Certified Orthopaedic Clinical Specialist, and a Sports Certified Specialist. Bryan received his DPT from Massachusetts General Hospital, Institute of Health Professionals ('12) and his B.S. in Physiotherapy from the Lincoln Institute of Health Sciences at Latrobe University in Melbourne, Australia ('88). Dr. O'Halloran is a seasoned MAPS instructor, beginning with MAPS in 1997, but has also presented manual therapy techniques for Springfield Health Plex Primary Care Sports Medicine Fellowship and presented on orthopedic manual therapy for final year DPT students at Widener University. Bryan also presented at both MAPS Symposiums on "Pain, Its Mechanisms and Physiology" and "Current Pain Theory", additionally Dr. O'Halloran held breakout sessions on private practices and ortho outpatient strategies. Currently, Bryan owns and operates an outpatient PT facility in Havertown, PA. Bryan has a very diverse education in with Manual Therapy and sports medicine, and is well aware of the realities of operating effectively in private practice. He has proved to be nothing short of an extremely well-rounded and valuable instructor.