

Colette Seymann PT, DPT, MMPT, FAAOMPT

Colette is a Fellow of the American Academy of Orthopedic Manual Physical Therapists. Colette obtained her B.S. in Kinesiology ('87) from the University of California, M.S. in Physiotherapy Manipulative Medicine ('96) from the University of Southern Australia, and her Doctorate of Physical Therapy ('11) from EIM-Institute for Health Professions. Dr. Seymann is seasoned PT Professional with over 20 years' experience as a clinician, and a variety of instructor positions for Physical Therapy programs in both the U.S. and Australia. For Example, Colette presented for the UCSD Academic Enrichment Program as a part of a student mentor program, and was a Physical Therapy Procedures Instructor at Mount St. Mary College in Los Angeles, and a biomechanics lab instructor at the University of South Australia in Adelaide. In addition she has presented for the APTA Combined Sections Meeting on "Variability of Residual Lung Volume Measurement in Paraplegic Male Athletes." Currently, Colette is the owner and manager of an outpatient physical therapy clinic in San Diego, CA.