

Vincent Kabbaz PT, MMPT, COMT, FAAOMPT.

Vincent is a Master of Manipulative Physiotherapy, Certified Orthopaedic Manual Therapist, a Fellow of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Manual Physical Therapists, adjunct PT Faculty at the University of Illinois at Chicago, and a Senior Faculty Advisor/mentor for the MAPS Orthopedic Manual Therapy Fellowship. Mr. Kabbaz has co-authored many publications alongside Dr. Chad Cook, and Chris Showalter on current physical therapy topics such as Low Back Pain, and Thrust Manipulation. Vincent has also presented on Clinical Reasoning at MAPS Symposiums and at the Lebanese Physiotherapy Association Annual Symposium. Vince graduated from the University of South Australia with a Bachelors' in Applied Science in Physiotherapy in 1994 and with a Post-graduate Masters' in Manipulative Physiotherapy in 2000. He practices almost exclusively in manual therapy and he generally treats the more complex patient presentations. He is the owner of HEAL Physical Therapy and MyBetterSpine.com Inc which provides quality supportive feather and down filled pillows. Vincent enjoys cycling around the hills west of Madison, WI, the mountains of Lebanon and Adelaide (Australia). Vincent has over 25 years of clinical experience, which combined with his education and orthopedic manual therapy expertise, makes him very well-rounded in understanding the needs of today's physical therapists and their patients.
