

Kenneth Learman PT, PhD, OCS, COMT, FAAOMPT.

Ken is a Certified Orthopaedic Manual Therapist, Board Certified Orthopaedic Clinical Specialist, and Fellow of the American Academy of Orthopedic Manual Physical Therapists. Ken received his PhD in Sports Medicine from the University of Pittsburgh ('07), M.Ed. in Health Education from Penn State ('92) and his B.S. in Physical Therapy from State University of New York at Buffalo ('89). Ken is actively involved in orthopedic manual therapy research and has published many original articles and book chapters on a variety of manual therapy topics, and is well-known for his impeccable research. Dr. Learman has given a series of presentations, lectures, and talks, for multiple professional organizations, such as Ohio Physical Therapy Association, IFOMPT, APTA, among others. Ken has also presented at three MAPS Symposiums on numerous topics, including the use of CPRs in the assessment and treatment of LBP, VBI, and testing. Ken has over 27 years of experience as is currently a Professor in the Department of Physical Therapy at Youngstown State University. Dr. Learman's education and research expertise gives him an abundance of knowledge on the most up to date trends in PT.