

Robert Price, PT, DPT, COMT

Robert is a graduate from Utica College of Syracuse where he graduated with his Doctorate in Physical Therapy cum laude in 2009. He now holds an advanced certification as a Certified Orthopedic Manual Therapist (COMT).

Rob's area of specialty is in neck and spine care offering services including mobilization and manipulation in addition to various soft tissue techniques. Other areas of specialty include rehabilitation of the running athlete with use of video analysis, post-surgical shoulder management, and the rehabilitation of dancer's.

Rob's wife, Kimberly Price, owns and operates En Pointe Studio and is an asset as a consultant with a bachelor's degree in dance from Towson University.