

Dr. Jonathan D. Baker, PT, DPT, COMT

Dr. Baker graduated from The University of Virginia's College at Wise with a BA degree in Biology in 2006 and earned his Doctor of Physical Therapy degree from East Tennessee State University in 2011.

Since earning his DPT degree he has successfully completed the MAPS Certification in Orthopedic Manual Therapy (COMT) in 2016. He was accepted into the inaugural program as a Fellow in training with the MAPS Orthopedic Manual Therapy Fellowship Program. He has been practicing physical therapy in private practice for 5 years in Tennessee.

Dr. Baker is a member of the orthopedic section of the APTA and the American Academy of Orthopedic Manual Physical Therapists. His fellowship training site is in Gray, Tennessee.